

Get your hands dirty this Eastertide: Acts of Justice for today

On Easter Day the women met Jesus, as a gardener figure. We may like to think that Mary Magdalene mistook the resurrected Christ for a gardener because Jesus still had the dirt from his own tomb under his nails. Here we see a God who would not lift a finger to condemn those who crucified him. A God unafraid to get his hands dirty for the ones he loves.

“God simply keeps reaching down into the dirt of humanity and pulling us out of the graves we dig for ourselves through our violence, our lies, our selfishness, our arrogance.” (Nadia Boltz-Weber). May this love compel us to act, today.

Christ Has No Body, Teresa of Avila (1515–1582)

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.
